U.N. Believed Set To Ask Cease-Fire For Formosa Strait

Akron GI's Kin Plan China Trip

Brother, Sister To Visit Jailed Airman

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Relatives of Steve Kiba Jr. decided today to accept offers and send two members of the family to visit the prisoner in China.

Kiba, a member of the United States Air Force whose B-29 was shot down in Korea in January 1953, is one of the American prisoners the Chinese Communists convicted of spying. The United States says his plane was shot down outside the Chinese border. The Reds contend it was shot down in China.

Recently the Communists said they would permit members of the prisoners' families to visit them.

Then came an offer from the Kraefo Container Corp. of Kansas City, Mo., to pay the bills for two families, one of them the Kiba family at Akron.

Picked to go were the airman's brother, John, 41, and sister, Irene, 16. They are the eldest and youngest of 10 brothers and sisters in the family and both live in Akron. John a bachelor, is an electronics engineer. Irene is a high school student.

Steve Kiba Sr., 64, said both he and his wife were too old to make the trip.

Mrs. D. W. Morrow, Noted Educator, Dies

ENGLEWOOD, N.J. (AP)—Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, noted educator and writer, is dead at 81. She was the mother-in-law of Charles A. Lindbergh.

The widow of the former ambassador to Mexico and U.S. senator died at her home last night with members of her family at her bedside. She had been ill for two months, but the family declined to give the cause of death.

When her husband died in 1931, Mrs. Morrow was asked by both major political parties to try for his Senate seat. But she turned down these suggestions because she wanted to retire to private life.

The following year Mrs. Morrow was back in the public spotlight through the tragic kidnapping of her grandson, the Lindbergh baby. This experience led her to write the poignant poems "Saint of the Lost," "Hostage" and "Asphodel."

Born Elizabeth Cutler in Cleveland, Ohio, she was graduated from Smith College in 1896. She was made acting president of the college in 1939—the first woman to hold such a post.

In 1903 she married Morrow, who then was a leading financier. Before that she was a teacher of English, history and French.

March Of Dimes Fund Totals $3,022

The March of Dimes fund totals $3,022.07 in the campaign which is scheduled to end Saturday, local chairman Bryce Kendall said today. The figure does not include untabulated proceeds of the wheelchair canvas conducted Saturday.

Breakdown of the figure shows $1,359.38 collected in mail contributions and $1,662.69 through special events. The special events included a girl scout canvas and a wheelchair street canvas Jan. 15.

Last year's campaign proceeds in the community totaled $7,883.23.

Contributions in 1954 amounted to $3,272.05, and special events proceeds were $2,534.50.

Prospective donors are asked to send contributions as soon as possible to Harold Muser, county drive treasurer, at the First National Bank.

Burned In Experiment

Patrick Harrington, 15, son of Mrs. Margaret Harrington of Sunset View, is being treated in Salem City Hospital for severe burns of the hand received Sunday afternoon while experimenting with chemicals in his home.

IKE ASKS CONGRESS FOR RIGHT TO USE FORCE TO SAVE FORMOSA

Adm. Pride Says U.S. Fleet Standing By Ready To Evacuate Tachen Islands

TAPEH, Formosa (AP)—Vice Adm. Alfred M. Pride, commander of the U.S. 7th Fleet, said today President Eisenhower was going to ask Congress for approval of evacuation of the Tachen Islands by the fleet, now standing "at the ready."

The admiral said the chief executive was asking Congress because "it would be a very grave risk and a major change in policy." But he said the fleet, if called upon, could cope with any eventualities.

Pride said the fleet, prepared for the evacuation and to protect other offshore islands, if so ordered, includes four large carriers—the Essex, Yorktown, Kearsarge and Wasp.

"I am not free to say what we plan to do . . ." the admiral told a news conference aboard his flagship, the cruiser Helena, at Keelung. "Quite naturally, the 7th Fleet deploys in the best way it can to fulfill its mission."

"We must necessarily keep abreast of affairs in this part of the world—and the Tachen situation is very much in our mind."

He said that, in addition to the carriers, the 7th Fleet "normally includes two to four cruisers." Pride said a fifth carrier, the Highly qualified sources, however, said such a meeting was likely after preliminary conferences this week. President Eisenhower said last week he would welcome a cease-fire move by the U.N.

The Peiping broadcast said a U.N. cease-fire request would "in effect mean asking the Chinese people to recognize the 'legality' of the United States occupation of Chinese territory, Taiwan."

It was asserted that the only way to ease tension in the area was to withdraw the U.S. 7th Fleet from Formosa's waters.

Columbiana Trades Classes To Begin

Trade extension classes for Columbiana will be organized at a meeting Tuesday at 7 p.m. in Columbiana High School, Holland Cameron, trade extension director in Salem, announced today.

Police said more bodies, believed to be still in the piled-up debris of the train and the badly damaged Coldfield Sutton station, might raise the death toll to 18.

It was Britain's first major rail crash since August 1953.

The train hurtled off the track just as it was passing the Sutton Coldfield station. The engine turned upside down, six coaches telescoped into each other and three of the four remaining cars smashed into the station building, which is not open on Sunday.

There was no immediate explanation of what caused the wreck.

A worse disaster was avoided by two railroad workers who leaped from the wrecked train and ran down the track to set a signal against another oncoming express. The second speeding train pulled up 20 yards short of the wreckage.

The courses, open to all interested in shop work, will be sponsored by the Columbiana Board of Education under the direction of Sup't of Schools D. W. Bailey.

The courses and organization a meeting Tuesday will be held in the commercial room of the Columbiana high school.

Cabas, Varsity Cagers To Give Club Program

A surprise program will be presented by Salem High School basketball coach John Cabas and his varsity squad when the Kiwanis Club meets Thursday noon in the Memorial Building. Rev. Harold Detrich will be program chairman.

Plans are being prepared for the spring observance of the 40th anniversary of Kiwanis, it was reported.

Lions Club Members To Hear Jack Harroff

Jack Harroff will address fellow Lions Club members when the club holds its weekly meeting Tuesday at 6 p.m. in the Lape Hotel.

Women will take charge of the meeting according to their husbands' positions in the club when the Lions hold their annual party Feb. 8. A speaker will be scheduled for the party.

Cranmer Fines Three

Three motorists who appeared before Mayor Dean B. Cranmer over the weekend were fined a total of $40 and costs for traffic violations. Fined were John F. Myers, Jr., 18, of Alliance, excessive speed or road conditions, $15; Robert L. Strabala, 18, of Hanoverton, failure to yield the right of way, $10; and Earl Leroy Grmek, 20, of Cleveland, reckless operation, $15.

2,000 Ohio Ministers Convene In Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dr. Luther A. Weigel, dean emeritus of the Yale Divinity School, is scheduled to address the opening session today of the 36th annual Ohio Pastor's Convention.

More than 2,000 Ohio ministers are expected for the four-day meeting at a gala show business banquet.

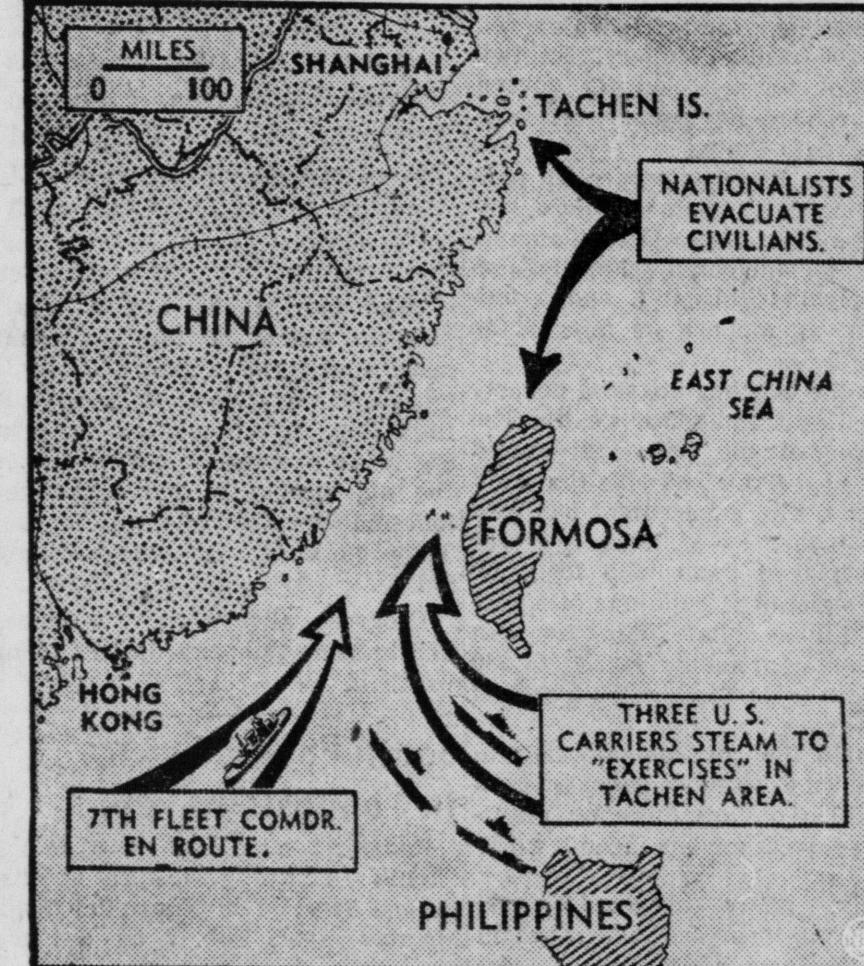

It was the Friars Club All-Charities Dinner and the club's first "Mr. and Mrs." affair.

A spokesman said approximately 1,000 attending subscribed an average of $100, or a total of about $100,000, to be given to their favorite charities for the privilege of the Sheppard family.

Toastmaster George Jessel presented Mr. and Mrs. Burns with a silver chalice and a plaque recognizing their services to the City of Hope Medical Center.

TENSION GROWS IN FAR EAST—Newspaper locates three-fold development in the Far East as the White House announces that President Eisenhower will send Congress a message Monday, fixing the U.S. defense line in the Far East, and asking authority to use American air and sea forces if Communist China oversteps its bounds. Vice Adm. Alfred Pride, commander of the U.S. 7th Fleet, is en route from Hong Kong to the Formosa Straits aboard the cruiser Helena. Three U.S. carriers, the Essex, Kearsarge and Yorktown, are steaming from the Philippines to Formosa waters; might, according to Far East reports, aid in evacuation of the Tachens. Civilians are being evacuated from the Tachens on two hours notice.

The Nationalists agreed, apparently with reluctance, to withdraw troops from the Tachens if President Eisenhower orders the fleet to help in the operation, according to sources informed of details of Pride's conference here with Chiang, U.S. Ambassador K. A. Rankin, and Maj. Gen. William C. Chase, chief of the U.S. Military Assistance Advisory Group here, joined in the talks.

Latin America's Texas

By HAL BOYLE

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Leaves from a cruising notebook: Venezuela today is the Texas of South America.

So much money is being made here that visiting Texans actually get an inferiority complex, and the U.S. dollar feels like 50 cents.

Just to be sure he wouldn't be mistaken for an ordinary bum, one new millionaire from the interior of the country came to town with calling cards that bore this message printed after his name: "Capital: 6,000,000 bolivars." That's nearly $2,000,000.

There is so much wealth flowing around that even tourists get a break. If you kick a diamond out of a rock here, the government lets you keep it tax free unless it is worth more than $1,700. You can also go pearl diving and keep any pearls you find.

The visitor has a dazed sensation he is caught in a mid-Century Klondike gold rush. The atmosphere of quick money is overwhelming, and tales of riches made overnight are a Bolivar a dozen.

Venezuela is bigger than Texas and Oklahoma combined and larger than any European country except Russia. Its chief income is from oil—no land except the United States produces more—but it also has iron ore deposits rivaling the famed Minnesota Mesabi range. It also has cowboys and Indians, 16,000-foot tall mountains, jungles, beach resorts, and the world's highest waterfalls.

Although the nation has a population of only 5½ million, the government spent half a billion dollars in 1954 on vast public works projects and still ended up with 80 million dollars left in the till. Its huge modernization program calls for the future expenditure of 80 million dollars alone for a new 2,640-mile railway network to open inland mineral and agricultural areas for further development.

Foreign investors from the United States and Europe are pouring untold more millions into the industrialization of the country. It has taken in more than 10,000 immigrants from Europe the last 10 years.

Caracas, the 388-year-old capital, is now one of the world's greatest boom cities. Fifty years ago milkmen herded cows through its ancient streets. Today they are jammed by thousands of new high-priced motor cars.

You reach the city from the nearby port along recently completed 11-mile highway that cost 71 million dollars, which Caraqueños proudly boast is, mile for mile, the most expensive ever built.

Nearly a million people live in the metropolitan area, and so many new buildings are going up construction workers have no time even to take Sundays off to go to the bull fights.

Dominating the heart of the city is Centro Bolívar, Venezuela's "Rockefeller Center," which will cost 300 million dollars. Its twin 300 foot towers, housing government offices, have four traffic levels beneath them.

Caracas also has a baseball park the size of Yankee Stadium, the new 8-million-dollar Hotel Tamanaco, a technicolored 30-million-dollar polyclinic hospital, and a university as modern as any in the world.

But the city has abysmal poverty as well as tremendous wealth. The shanties of the poor still crowd many of the raw red hills that stud Caracas. The government has torn down thousands of these eyesores and replaced them with forty 15-story apartment buildings at a cost of 24 million dollars. Workmen can rent the apartments for $6 to $30 a month, own them after a period of 20 years.

In 1955 the government plans to drop 6,500 more shacks, spend 24 million dollars more on apartment projects for low income workers.

Oddly, many uprooted workers' families are unhappy in their fine new apartments.

GEMS GALORE — Actress Florence Henderson, chosen Queen for the ball of Diamond Manufacturers and Importers of America, wears $1,000,000 worth of jewelry.

"The old shacks had a small yard in which the families could raise a pig and a few chickens," explained our guide. "It is all but impossible, of course, to raise a pig in an apartment, and many of the old people in particular get lonesome for their old way of life. They don't feel as free as they did."

Progress always has its price, and to some the price doesn't seem worth it.

South Pacific Opens In Youngstown Feb. 7

Rodgers and Hammerstein's "South Pacific" will open at the Palace Theatre in Youngstown on Monday night, Feb. 7 for a four-day run.

The story of the musical play "South Pacific" was adapted from James A. Michener's Pulitzer Prize-winning book "Tales of the South Pacific."

The cast of "South Pacific" is headed by Iva Withers and Allen Gerrard.

French Lowland Areas Flooded

Seine Expected To Crest Today In Paris

PARIS (AP)—The normally sluggish rivers of the Paris basin leveled out today near their highest point in 31 years, flooding thousands of acres of lowland farms and industrial suburbs.

While Paris was the biggest city hit by the Seine, the Moselle in northwest France spilled over its banks near Metz and partly flooded areas near Toulouse, one of France's leading industrial centers.

The mud-yellow Seine, which flows in a crooked "S" through Paris, was expected to crest sometime today just short of the 24-foot level reached 31 years ago in a far more serious flood.

Despite six days of rising waters in the capital area, police have not reported any flood deaths. Evacuations, which number in the thousands, have been slow and orderly. Most householders had ample time to move their belongings to higher ground.

The center of Paris was in little danger, but some of its suburbs were under nearly two feet of water. An estimated 50,000 workers were kept away from their jobs by flooded factories or inundated roads. Throughout the Paris basin highways were cut off by the high water.

Several historic bridges across the Seine were closed as a precaution in fear the surging waters had weakened their foundations.

The basement of the famed cathedral of Notre Dame, located on an island in the Seine, was flooded but the old church was safe.

Effort To Collect Mile Of Dimes Fails

TAKES OVER — Robert F. Kennedy, 29, is the new chief counsel of the Senate Investigating Committee. He replaces the controversial Roy Cohn with whom he feuded while serving as assistant and minority counsel for two years. The feuding broke out into the open at the Army-McCarthy hearings last spring.

With the addition today of the name of G. A. Zellers, the Democrats have a slate of five for the six council seats and expect to add another. Remaining Democratic council candidates are Ex-councilman Walter Crawford, Charles Flohr, William Allen and LeClair Nelson. Allen is a former member of the board of education.

For the three-member board of public affairs, the Democrats have one candidate, R. G. Bevington, but expect to have a full slate.

Clyde Hoover, Carl Keller and John Barrow, the three Republicans constituting the present board which has under construction a $156,000 addition to the water softener plant, will file for re-election. Neither of the two Democrats, Charles Fisher and Oliver Harrold, on the present council is a candidate for re-election.

E. L. Calvin, one-term former Democratic mayor, will make a third try for reelection. Elected in 1949, he was defeated in 1951 and again in 1953 by Walter Thomas, present mayor, who has not announced a decision to be a candidate for reelection.

OFFICIALS SAY it has been a custom for a number of years for the Republicans to have no candidate for village clerk and the Democrats no candidate for village treasurer. S. Richard Orr, Democratic candidate for clerk, has held the office most of the time for more than 30 years, and the late Charles B. Fuhrman, Republican, held the office of treasurer for a long period of years. Miss Kathryn Fuhrman has been the Republican incumbent treasurer since the death of her father.

The candidacy of the Republican board of affairs for reelection is the only announcement yet made of Republican candidates.

U.S. Jets Heavily Guard Strategic Okinawa

OKINAWA (AP)—American Air Force Sabrejets are patrolling the skies in force over this strategic island base only 40 miles from the troubled Tachen Islands. The jets have been out in record strength daily since the Reds successfully attacked tiny Yiliangshan Island near the Tachens a week ago.

Red China Warship Is Polite To Japs

OKINAWA (AP)—A Red Chinese warship stopped three Japanese fishing vessels 80 miles southeast of Shanghai and ordered them out of Chinese waters, the Moji Maritime Board reported today. The fishing craft were released immediately, apparently in line with Red China's new program of being polite to Japanese seamen.

Girl's Wish To Skate Tragically Fulfilled

DETROIT (AP)—Since Christmas, 15-year-old Carol Giacobazzi yearned to use her new ice skates, a present.

But she had been ill. So she spent her free time with her books and oil painting and poetry. In high school she was an all-A student.

Yesterday, the glimmering ice of Lake St. Clair was a lure.

Carol pleaded with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Giacobazzi for permission to go skating. They finally agreed.

The ice broke beneath Carol and her companion Sandy Shern, also 15, about 80 feet offshore.

Two small boys heard their cries and raced for help.

Another skater, Gerald Miller, 19, responded. He raced to the hole in the ice. Lying prone, he pulled Sandy to safety. But he couldn't save Carol.

Zeuch Appointed To Super Market Group

Fred E. Zeuch, executive vice president, Century Food Markets Co., Youngstown, has been named to head the Super Market Institute's new frozen foods productivity committee.

Mr. Zeuch has been a leader in the super market industry's efforts to work cooperatively with manufacturers in an effort to eliminate costly practices.

Hanoverton

Mrs. Robert Ward and her brother Bill Weyant of Hanoverton returned home Tuesday from Cherry Point, North Carolina where they had visited their brother, Cpl. Vincent V. Weyant.

Cpl. Weyant, stationed with the Marines at Cherry Point, returned home for a 30-day furlough.

Following his leave, the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Weyant will go to San Francisco and then to Japan for 22 months of overseas duty. He has served 16 months in the motor corps division.

Outlook Indicates No Election In Primaries For Columbiana

COLUMBIANA—With the deadline for filing Wednesday, Feb. 2, only 10 days away, appearances indicate that Columbians will not need an election on the May primary date.

Although an entire slate of municipal elective officers is listed to be filled at the November election, not enough prospective candidates have appeared to create a contest for any office.

With the addition today of the name of G. A. Zellers, the Democrats have a slate of five for the six council seats and expect to add another. STEELWORKER SHOT

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—A steelworker from nearby Hubbard, Harry Curry, 29, was found shot to death yesterday in a house trailer. Curry's body was wedged between a chair and a table, deputies said, and a revolver was discovered nearby. The Trumbull County sheriff's office said Curry's wife was held for questioning.

New Power Plant Ready For A-Factory

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio (AP)—Electric power from the huge new Kyger Creek power plant will begin supplying the vast needs of the Portsmouth Area atomic plant this week.

George C. Halfinger, plant general manager, said the first of the plant's 20,000 kilowatt units is ready to send power to the atomic plant, which will utilize the entire output.

The 145 million dollar steam-generating plant has a rated capacity of one million kilowatts. It originally was scheduled to start operations next April.

Located 15 miles north of here, the Kyger Creek plant is second in size only to one other steam-generating plant at Madison, Ind.

As the plant prepared to hum, dust collectors and automatic instruments were readied to check dust and gas discharge.

Halfinger said the instruments, known as Thomas autometers, will check air content in Gallipolis, Mid-depot and Point Pleasant.

He said the dust collectors will check on mechanical collectors, which are designed to remove 95 per cent of the dust from plant boilers.

There's a new zip to Dynaflow*

— and better gas mileage to boot!

This is something you really ought to try.

Even though you may be familiar with earlier versions of Dynaflow Drive—either from personal experience or from hearsay—you owe it to yourself to press the pedal of a 1955 Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow.

Just as simple as ever to operate—easier, in fact, with the new positioning of the lever.

Just as smooth as ever, with nary a lag, halt or hesitation throughout the speed range.

But brother!—hang on to your hat when you call for action!

Because that's what you get, instantly.

Because twenty power blades inside the very heart of this wondrous automatic transmission switch their pitch for getaway performance—much like the airplane's propeller is angled for take-off.

It's as simple as that—but far more thrilling than words can tell.

And it's a big boon to your gasoline money, too. For, just as the plane's propeller changes pitch aloft for greater fuel efficiency in cruising, so the Dynaflow "propellers" change pitch to deliver a lot more miles per gallon in normal driving and cruising.

Come in and try it—this week. You'll find it harnessed to the highest V8 horsepower in Buick history—and housed in the bold new styling that says Buick and nothing but.

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Salem's Future

The Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corporation's announcement that it will build a $4-million rebaratory plant along the Pennsylvania Railroad right-of-way near Columbiana causes Salemites to wonder again why choice industrial sites here are not attractive to new industries.

The answer probably lies in the fact that we are not as aggressive in "selling" our fine community to other people.

Although this salesmanship is usually left to the leadership of prominent citizens, a community's attributes are often readily recognized without having to be brought into focus. Such was Columbiana's case in getting another new industry.

Such could be Salem's fortune, too.

We already have a healthy diversity of industries, a fine school system, many churches, growing residential districts, good stores, an adequate water supply, a sewage system that is now being expanded, and a good labor market.

Salem has everything that a new industry could ask of a community, yet within the past two months the Salem-Brosius Company closed its offices here and moved to Pittsburgh. Possibly, Salem-Brosius could have been induced to remain here. The effort certainly would have been rewarding, if only to witness civic pride in action. That strengthens the moral fiber of a community.

Salem next year observes her Sesquicentennial, a time for celebration of 150 years of progress and also a time to plan for the years that lie ahead. Salem's future is as bright as the visions of her people who labor, play and worship together to convert faith into practical accomplishments.

Those visions can become the realities of tomorrow; the crystallization of today's planning.

Yes, Salem has come a long way—even in the past decade—and it will prosper more abundantly, materially and spiritually, if its leaders shoulder their civic responsibilities with renewed zeal.

French Object Lesson

While taxes are at the top of the list of most-discussed nuisances, thanks to interest roused by the new budget recommendations, a report from France suggests an object lesson.

In France, taxes are a nuisance, too. No one likes to pay them. Because of taxpayer resistance, the government has a hard time collecting what is coming to it. In some quarters, the resistance has become open revolt.

One of these quarters is what passes in France for small business, classified that way because in the French tax system a business with a gross of less than a million francs a year is considered to be so small its taxes are nominal. Yet, these small enterprises have been bombing the government with claim of ruination. Its members have been openly defying tax collectors.

So the government had to do something in its defense.

It released statistics to show that four-fifths of France's small businesses report average monthly incomes of 33,700 francs—less than $100. This revelation of fraud has placed these most violent of all taxation critics in a ridiculous light.

The people they were trying to impress with claims of ruinous taxation are laughing at them. The government has been quick to point out that if France's little businessmen really were that little they couldn't stay in business.

Tail Of The Dragon

The grand strategy of the Chinese puzzle is not likely to be fathomed by anyone but Asiatic experts in Congress and the State Departments—and they will continue to be in hot disagreement.

But everybody can agree that if the Nationalists holding Formosa ever come into direct and violent conflict with the Communist regime dominating the mainland, the standoff that has existed since the closing months of 1949, when Chiang Kai-shek went to Formosa, will be at an end. The tail of the Chinese dragon will be lashing again.

This would seem to be the immediate importance of the stepped-up rate of activity in the Tachen Islands, where the mainland regime seems to have had significant success in forcing Nationalist troops to give ground.

The significance of the success is the prospect that Communist troops intend to close in on Formosa and have started a campaign.

If the Chinese civil war reverts to open fighting, there will be a conclusion the next time, not a standoff. The Nationalists have no room left for retreat; they must return to the mainland or perish.

The Communists, on the other hand, never will be safe until they have destroyed their opposition. That is the historic weakness of the Communist conspiracy—that it cannot win converts and therefore must destroy them lest they destroy the Communists.

Two-China Plan

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Ike's Formosa Proposal Is Not Change In Policy

When President Eisenhower indicated that he would be glad to have the United Nations "exercise its good offices" so as to bring about a "cease fire" between the Communist government and the Nationalist government in China, there was opened up a field for discussion of a possible solution of the whole Far Eastern problem. Actually no change in American policy is in prospect.

On its face the "cease fire" plan could lead to U.N. jurisdiction and the recognition of two separate entities—the Nationalist and the Communist. This has sometimes been referred to as the "Two China" formula.

In Britain the idea is favored of a belief that Formosa would then be accepted as a separate republic while Red China would come into the United Nations as the original China mentioned in the United Nations Charter.

Such a scheme would necessitate an acceptance by Red China of the idea of losing Formosa, now regarded as an integral part of China. The Nationalists, too, have never given up hope of trying to go back and win the mainland.

ALL IN ALL, it is, of course, in line with precedent for the President to suggest that "good offices" be used by the United Nations because any situation that endangers the peace of the world is logically within U.N. jurisdiction for investigation and for possible settlement.

While neither Red China nor the Nationalists would agree to any such proposal, it is likely that America will gain in the court of public opinion considerable credit for manifesting publicly a desire to end the fighting in a troublesome area. Up to now the Communist propaganda has endeavored to create the impression that the United States is anxious to investigate a war in the Far East. Eisenhower's announcement of his readiness to let the U.N. bring about a "cease fire" is proof just the opposite.

Incidentally, the idea is something of a challenge to Chou En-lai, the Red Chinese foreign minister. At Geneva last spring he scorned the United Nations and refused to listen to any proposal whereby the United Nations machinery would be employed to settle the Korean unification problem. Will he now accept jurisdiction of the U.N. to solve what has hitherto been regarded by Red

"Oh, No!"

The Yank Prisoners Of The Chinese

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

It was difficult to understand, when he left for his safari to Peking, what Dag Hammarskjold of the United Nations hoped to accomplish.

The President and Secretary Dulles have agreed on a line of policy which requires the defense of Formosa. But military men will have to decide as each contingency arises whether any other islands nearby will have to be defended in order to safeguard the approaches to the big island.

The Department of State, meanwhile, wants to see the mutual defense treaty with the Nationalist government promptly ratified by the Senate. There is no justification for any belief that the administration's Far Eastern policy has undergone any change.

SO FAR AS the Chinese people are concerned, Hammarskjold came begging, thus giving face to a government that has no seat in the United Nations. In a word, to use a Chinese expression, he kowtowed to the Communist government of China, strengthening that government's prestige in Asia where such a gesture is understood in Asiatic terms.

HammarSKJOLD may wish for the recognition of Red China by the United Nations, but that, under the Charter, is none of his business.

The fact is that the fliers have not been freed. A large number of Americans are still held in China. No official figure has been disclosed by the American government which probably can have no exact figure. Some are businessmen and missionaries; some are military personnel who may have been reported missing in action or even dead.

The Red Chinese have not even shown our government the courtesy of providing accurate data.

In the many years that I lived in China, during which I saw considerable military action, I never encountered what we would call a prison camp. Captives were either killed or incorporated in the capturing army. Many were permitted to escape, to save the cost of feeding and housing them, and they became bandits.

THE TERMS bandit and soldier were interchangeable during the wars of the Tuchuns, the civil wars that lasted from 1912 to about 1932, a period of almost constant internal strife.

The Red Chinese refinement is to call these men spies rather than bandits, to wash their brains rather than to incorporate them into their armies, to hold them as hostages for some advantage in their negotiations for recognition by the United States and the United Nations. The prisoners are capturing army. Many were permitted to escape, to save the cost of feeding and housing them, and they became bandits.

THE POINT of the matter is that Chou leaves us three alternatives:

1. Let the prisoners stay in China and rot there.

2. Throw the bomb at Red China.

3. Recognize them on condition that they graciously permit all Americans now held in China to be returned to the United States, and we would have to take their word that they are sticking to their contract as we do not know how many they hold.

Whether we are patient or impatient will affect the situation little unless we go to war, which we do not want to do. Therefore, we are stuck with a bad mess and we might as well face it.

I recently saw a screening of a motion picture, "Bamboo Prison," which was made by Bryan Foy with rare sensitivity.

This picture gives a dramatic impression of what a Chinese prison is and how Americans are treated. It is all a story, but I could not help thinking of our boys who are still eating millet and having their brains washed and I realized that the real trouble is that nobody knows what to do about it.

The First Congress

By ANN COTRELL

As the 84th Congress swings into action, a solitary woman in a quiet office a few city blocks from the Capitol is bringing to life the very first federal Congress.

Mrs. Marion R. Tingling is writing down the words exactly as they fell from the lips of the first congressmen 166 years ago.

She is deciphering the weird shorthand notes of one Thomas Lloyd. He was the only person to take down nearly all of the debates, and to her typewriter notebooks to her pads of lined white paper of which came to light 15 years ago.

Mrs. Tingling is the first known person to transcribe these notes except Lloyd himself. And his transcriptions do not appear to be verbatim, judging from his notes which came to light 15 years ago.

The Lloyd system contains no symbols for vowels; the same symbols are often used for different words. For example, "acts" and "accounts" are written the same way.

Though various records were made of the first Congress, Lloyd was the only man to take down the debates. He had his eye—if not on the buck—at least, on the pence. He charged 18 pence for an issue of his printed records of the debates.

But his "Congressional Register," according to Mrs. Tingling, culled a great deal from memory—and even imagination.

Still, commission members—appointed by the President—feel that the notes, though not always complete, are closest to the words as they were actually spoken.

And each of these words, as deciphered by detective Tingling, may ring louder and longer than many uttered since.

And it gave us the Bill of Rights.

Quiet and unassuming, Mrs. Tingling developed her interest in odd shorthand systems during her 19 years at the Huntingdon Library in San Marino, Calif. While there she General Motors is showing an experimental car with a TV set on the back of the front seat... This can prove to be the answer to the problem of how to stop back-seat driving... But fancy what it can mean if the TV screen is ever put in front of the operator!

Imagine having to drive through heavy traffic, ballet dancers, trained dogs, jack-pot audiences and baseball games at one and the same time!!!

We anticipate the day when our answer to the motorcycle cop, after we have torn off somebody's fender, will be "I'm sorry, officer. I was only doing four channels per hour and got shunted into the other car by one of those TV spectacles."

The rear seat TV will be bad enough, with the wife clamoring "Are we near Highland Falls yet, Hilary, or have I still got time for another twenty minutes of commercials?"... Don't turn corners so sharply; I missed that last comedy climax entirely."... "Stop the car and call the service station; the picture has gone dead!... "This is an awful automobile; I can't get Break the Bank, Talent Scouts or Dragnet."

No wife is going to be happy if she can't get all the big channels in a $5,000 car. And the driver is not going to register contentment when he can't see the telecast and has to ask somebody in the rear seat if Sgt. With a weaving driver just ahead, a wild truck driver on his left, a juvenile hot-rodder on his right and 'This Is Your FBI' going full blast in his rear, how can a car operator be responsible for what happens?

Ruth Circle Names Year's Committees

"Very Costly" was the theme of an inspiring missionary talk given by Mrs. E. L. Cattell, senior missionary at the American Friends Mission in Central India, to members and guests of the First Friends Ruth Circle Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Herman C. Stratton, Buckeye Ave.

For the nucleus of her remarks, Mrs. Cattell used this Bible verse, "Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus . . . and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment." The wife of Dr. Cattell, superintendent of the American Friends mission, the speaker pointed out that success in missionary endeavors comes through the personal outpouring of that which is "very costly."

"There is no fragrance from a Christian life, which withholds that which is very costly," she told this mission group, as she advised the women to put into the hands of Christ their "precious things" for the promotion of mission work. "We represent your missionary vision and your faith. Take up your cross and follow Christ," she admonished.

Mrs. Cattell and her husband plan to return to India at the end of a year's furlough. Miss Mary Herbert gave a devotional talk on the theme, "Trust." Two guests, Mrs. Lester McCrea and Miss Hilda Franke provided music. Mrs. McCrea whistled two solos, "The Cathedrals" and "Bless This House" with Miss Franke at the piano. Mrs. L. L. McClugage, secretary, read a letter from Rev. Howard W. Moore, former pastor of the East Goshen Friends Church who went to Formosa last autumn to engage in mission work.

The president, Miss Pearl Walker, was honored when the members surprised her by giving her a beautiful gold wrist watch. Mrs. McClugage made the presentation. The gift was in recognition of Miss Walker's birthday anniversary. Mrs. Cattell also received a gift.

At the social period, Mrs. Stratton and her associate hostesses, Mrs. Ray Llewellyn and Mrs. B. J. Boström served refreshments. Centering the buffet table was a large decorated birthday cake, accented a pink and white color scheme.

Local Twins To Be Models In Style Show

The Mothers of Twins Club will present their twins as models for the benefit style show the group will hold in cooperation with Strouss-Hirshberg's Store in March, according to announcement today by the club president, Mrs. Gilbert Erhart.

Members, meeting Thursday in the Memorial Building, made plans for the coming affair. Twenty-five mothers and their guests witnessed a plastic benefit demonstration conducted by Mrs. Virginia Ellis of Columbiana.

The evening's speaker, Dr. Joseph Schmid, gave a talk on dental care.

Winner of the Sunshine Box was Stevie Jo Rice, granddaughter of Mrs. Fred Rice. The mothers will hear a talk on beauty care by Mrs. Esther Messersmith at the next meeting Feb. 17.

Elsie Matti Society Has Dinner Meeting

The home of Mrs. Loren Pim of New Albany was the scene of the Thursday night dinner meeting of 22 members of the Elsie Matti Missionary Society of the First Friends Church.

Miniature trees were used in decorating the tables where the mothers were seated. Assisting Mrs. Pim in entertaining was Mrs. Lloyd Parker.

The members and three visitors Mrs. Robert Jeffries, Mrs. Thomas Cope and Miss Mary Petersen, all of Salem, heard a talk by Mrs. Ralph Blackburn, guest speaker, on the extension work of the church.

Mrs. Harold Winn wife of the church pastor, led in the song service. Mrs. Harold Tolson conducted the devotional service on "Choose Thee This Day." Miss Petersen and Mrs. Robert Todd sang "Open Mine Eyes."

The women decided to take a special offering to purchase stainless steel plateware for the church kitchen. During the evening they hemmed tea towels which will be sent to the Ohio extension workers for the church.

February 17 is the next meeting date.

Hostess at the meeting Thursday, Feb. 3, will be Mrs. Earl Miller of Cleveland St.

Meat Loaf Is Good Hot Or Cold

A nourishing meal-in-itself dish that can be eaten hot or cold is always welcome. This meat loaf can be eaten right from the oven or served in sandwiches when cold. Made with cracker crumbs, it has a special texture not found when bread is used.

Here's the easy way to prepare it.

1½ cups cracker crumbs

¼ cup minced onion

¼ cup minced green pepper
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1½ pounds ground lean beef
½ pound pork sausage
2 tablespoons horseradish
1 tablespoon salt
¼ cup milk
½ cup catsup
1 teaspoon dry mustard

Heat oven to 350 degrees F.

Grease a 9-inch by 5-inch by 3-inch loaf pan thoroughly. Crush crackers medium fine by rolling on sheet of waxed paper with rolling pin. In medium-size bowl, combine cracker crumbs, onion, green pepper, eggs, beef sausage, horseradish, salt, milk, ¼ cup of catsup and mustard. Mix well and press into greased loaf pan.

Spread top with remaining ¼ cup of catsup. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 1 hour. Remove to heated platter, slice and serve hot; or chill, slice and serve cold. Makes 6 generous servings.

Quakers Add Trojans To Season's List Of Victims 82-60

Locals Shoot Almost 50%

Jack Alexander Paces Salem With 20 Points

By LOWELL FLEISCHER
The Salem Quakers added the Sebring Trojans to their list of season victims Saturday night 82-60 before a near capacity crowd in the Sebring High School gym.

Slippery highways kept the crowd below that expected by Sebring school officials.

Coach John Cabas' Quakers shot almost 50 per cent again as they dropped 29 of 59 shots for a 49.2 average for the night. The locals seemingly couldn't miss during the second quarter when they scored 30 points and made over 70 per cent of their shots.

The locals jumped off to a 19-13 first period lead and added 30 markers in the second frame to 13 for Sebring to lead at intermission 49-26. Salem tallied 14 in the third quarter to 12 for the Trojans but were outscored 22-19 in the final period.

SEBRING MADE 14 of its last 22 points on fouls and Salem nine of its final 19 on free throws as the officials called one foul after another on the two squads.

All told, Salem collected 24 points on fouls and Sebring 26. The Quakers missed 16 other foul shots and Sebring 10.

Jack Alexander led the Salem scoring with 20 markers. Alexander also played one of his best floor games of the season, getting up after many rebounds. Harry Baird tallied 18 points for the night, Rich Hunter 14 and Ken Bosu 12.

Junior Matt Klein had eight, all in the last quarter when Cabas used a number of the Reserves.

Baird and Alexander saw limited action in the last quarter with the Reserves playing most of the last period. The Jayvees didn't make a field goal with the exception of Klein's three in the final quarter.

Neither Coach John Cabas or Reserve mentor Karl Zellers was pleased with the Reserve play.

THE SEBRING TROJANS made 17 of 61 attempted shots for a 27.2 percentage. The Sebring Club was led by Ed Senior with 14 points. Charles Eddie and Buck Mooney each added eight points for Coach David Morgan's Trojans. Kend a 11 Thorsmire added seven points, and freshman Larry Birkhimer six on three beautiful hook shots.

For the Quakers it was their 10th win of the current campaign against a lone setback, a 58-54 loss to Coach Charlie Joachim's Rayen Tigers. The Sebring club has seven wins for the season and four losses.

The Trojans are still in second place in the Tri-County League standings with four wins and only one loss, that to the Poland High School cagers, one of the district's top Class A aggregations.

Senior cager Dale Middeker missed action in both Friday and Saturday night's battles. He is still confined to his home with a congestion due to a cold and probably will not report for practice again until tomorrow. The Cabasmen were bothered by illness all week, with several of the players missing school.

THE QUAKERS continue to dominate the Class A squads in the Youngstown District. Last week the Cabasmen were ranked the seventh top Ohio high school team in the state by sports writers in the first Associated Press poll of the year. Tomorrow the second AP poll of the season will be released.

Captain Harry Baird continues to lead the Salem scoring as he dropped in 18 Saturday for an 11-game total of 176 markers. Jack Alexander is second with 152 points. Ken Bosu has 145 and Rich Hunter 120.

The Quakers still are averaging over 86 points per game while their opponents have an average of 53.2 markers per contest. The Quakers' shooting is well over 45 per cent for the season.

The Quakers have only one contest this week, a Saturday night game with the Youngstown Chaney cagers in the local gym. Only one game also is scheduled the following week, the traditional battle with the East Liverpool Potters in the Pottery, myredibFPA in the Potter gym Friday, Feb. 4.

Most of boxing's new talent is coming from Europe these days. Another newcomer, Italy's Angelo Brisci, makes his U.S. debut tonight (Monday) against scrappy Pete Adams of Newark, N.J., in the main 10-rounder at New York's St. Nicholas Arena.

DuMont will telecast the bout starting at 10 p.m. EST.

Brisci, another importation by the team of Charley Johnston and Carmen Tarantino, is a 26-year-old middleweight with a 29-5-4 record.

Paddy Young, a veteran on the comeback trail, and Tony Johnson, a youngster on the rise, collide in an all-New York light heavyweight 10-rounder at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena tonight.

Telecast, by ABC-TV, is at 10 p.m. EST.

Both were unbeaten in 1954. Young in two scraps and Johnson in six.

Jayvees Win 11th; Nip Sebring 39-32

Coach Karl Zeller's Reserve cagers won their 11th straight contest of the 1954-55 season Saturday night as they set down the Sebring Trojans 39-32 in the prelim game at Sebring.

Ted Jackson led the Salem squad with 11 points as the Quakers were held to their lowest scoring game of the season by the Trojans. Matt Klein added nine points for Salem and Jim Kelly seven.

The locals jumped off to a 14-3 first period lead, and were out in front 25-18 at halftime, and 35-28 at the third quarter mark.

Larry Birkhimer, Sebring freshman standout, led the Sebring scoring with 11 points.

It was the 29th straight win for a Salem Reserve team without a loss.

Northwestern Seeks To Widen Lead In Close Big 10 Race

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

The two-week examination lull in college basketball ends Saturday night when practically every major club in the country takes the court again. But, meanwhile, the Northwestern and Tulsa teams have things other than exams on their minds tonight.

Northwestern, the current leader of the up-and-down Big Ten race with a 3-1 mark, could take a commanding lead by defeating Minnesota tonight in Minneapolis. The Gophers are in a three-way tie for second place with Illinois and Iowa, all showing 3-2 records.

The Wildcats are the fourth outfit in the past three weeks to climb atop the league. They pulled ahead by upsetting Iowa 63-73 last Saturday, while Michigan State was dropping Minnesota 87-75. Still, Minnesota will be favored.

Tulsa is tied for the lead in the tough Missouri Valley Conference with St. Louis and faces a serious test tonight against Houston. Then, on Saturday, Coach Clarence IBA takes his club to Stillwater, Okla., to battle brother Hank IBA's Oklahoma A&M outfit.

CLEVELAND — Eddie Joost, 38-year-old former manager and shortstop of the Philadelphia Athletics, has been invited to try out with the Cleveland Indians at their Tucson, Ariz., training camp.

General Manager Hank Greenberg announced that yesterday, declared:

"We are simply giving him the opportunity to show us whether he can help the club in a reserve capacity."

"Manager Al Lopez finds that Joost is in good physical condition and if he thinks he can give us added utility strength, then we will sign him to a contract."

At his home in California, Joost said:

"I'm in good condition and think I'm capable of being a good relief man even if I didn't play too many games last year."

Joost, released outright by the Athletics when their franchise was moved to Kansas City last November, appeared in only 19 games last season. He registered 17 hits in 7 times at bat for a .362 average.

One other league front-runner is slated to see action tonight, Colorado, the Big Seven pacesetter with three victories and no defeats, has a date with Iowa State in Boulder. This shouldn't be any problem for Colorado.

Here's how the other major conferences stand:

Ivy League—Cornell and Penn tied for first.

Skyline—Utah has just about wrapped up the title.

Southeastern—Georgia has shown unexpected strength, but will step into the first Saturday when it plays Alabama riding along in first place with an unblemished league record and rated the club most likely to give Kentucky a tussle for the title.

Southwest—Texas Christian is back in the No. 1 spot but there will be a tussle after Friday's Bayou-Southern Methodist game.

Rocky Mountain—Idaho State with five victories and no defeats, is well on its way toward its third straight league title.

Atlantic Coast—North Carolina is leading with 7-1, but Maryland is right behind with 8-2.

Southern—West Virginia is leading with 5-0, followed by Richmond with 6-1.

Pacific Coast—Oregon State has a commanding lead in the North Division after beating Oregon twice over the weekend for a 6-0 conference record, while UCLA and Stanford remained tied for the Southern Division lead with 3-1 records.

Joost Is Invited To Indian Tryout

CINCINNATI — Cincinnati's Bearcats, bidding for a spot in the national rankings with a brilliant 13-3 record after toppling tough Miami Saturday night, face two foes this week in the headliners of a 30-game program for Ohio's collegiate basketeers.

Dayton, defeated 85-78 by the Bearcats two weeks ago but ranked 18th nationally, is idle until next Sunday when the Flyers meet Xavier's Musketeers at Cincinnati.

Of the abbreviated 30-game slate this week, 18 are scheduled next Saturday as the boys go back into action after midyear exams, and 17 are against out-of-state foes.

One of the week's big games sends Findlay's Oilers against Ohio Northern Saturday at Ada. The two teams are tied for the Mid-Ohio League lead with 6-0 records.

Northern paces the state pack with a 9-1 mark, and Findlay is tied for third with 10-2.

Wooster and Marietta, deadlocked for the Ohio Conference top spot with 4-0 marks, also see action. Wooster entertains Heidelberg host to Ohio Wesleyan, which has a 4-3 league mark. The co-leaders meet Feb. 3 at Wooster in the game which might decide the title. Marietta's 78-66 win over Akron Saturday night, with Mary Davis getting 31 points for the victors, was the 17th straight league conquest for the Pioneers.

13-4 in the loop) while Marietta

Ohio University, last week's leader with 8-1, ran into a pair of upsets by bowing 79-69 to Toledo for the Rockets' third win in 14 starts, and 77-69 to Bowling Green for the Falcons' fourth triumph in 12 attempts. The two losses wrecked Ohio U's hopes—and the Bobcats face league-leading Miami this week.

Cincinnati, in making its bid for a spot in the sun, entertains Bell State Wednesday night and Western Kentucky Saturday. Ohio State, in the Big Ten cellar with a 1-3 record, plays host to Iowa tonight and Northwestern Saturday.

Ohio teams won 8 and lost 11 against out-of-state teams last week, giving the Buckeye squads 97 victories and 75 defeats in interstate play for the season, with a scoring edge of 13,116 to 13,014.

Interested teams can secure information and entrance forms by addressing F. G. Mills, Box 12, Sebring.

N. Waterford Loses To Springfield 56-51

Coach Robert Scates' New Waterford cagers were beaten at the foul line Saturday night by the red hot Springfield Twp. squad 56-51.

The New Waterford Trojans made only nine free throws out of 19 while Springfield Twp. sank 18 of 27 to provide the margin of victory. New Waterford tallied 21 field goals and Springfield 19.

It was the seventh straight defeat for New Waterford, which also has two wins. The Springfield cagers have a 11-4 season record.

Dick Hubbard tallied 14 markers for New Waterford and Dave Felgar's 18 points paced the Springfield Twp. squad.

8-9 Million Americans Now 'In' Stock Market; Many Undecided

Editor's Note—Here, in the first of five articles, Reiman Morin, one of the Associated Press' top reporters, tells the story of the stock market—present, past and what the experts think of the future.

By REIMAN MORIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Between eight and nine million Americans, according to the best estimates, are "in" the stock market today.

Should you be among them? Or do you feel the market is no place for your money?

This question presented itself to a schoolteacher in upstate New York some years ago. The story of her experiences in the market is true. But it is not reported here in order to convince you either way.

It is simply one example of a big, dynamic, exciting, and supremely enigmatic situation in America at this moment—a condition that goes beyond Wall Street and Washington, right into your living room.

Miss X, the teacher, unexpectedly received $5,000 from the sale of a family farm in California. At that time, she was approaching retirement.

"I knew what my income would be from my pension and some insurance that was about to mature," she said. "And I had some savings in the bank. All told, I expected to be reasonably comfortable after I retired."

Now, the $5,000 windfall presented an opportunity to bolster this fixed income. She decided to put the money in stocks. Unfortunately, she took the advice of "a friend of a friend" and, some four years later, her portfolio showed a net loss of $1,000.

She then sought the advice of a broker. The branch manager in her town called personally and examined her stocks. Four of the seven she held, he said, were "very dubious—very speculative." She said she was interested in security, not speculation.

After an analysis, the broker returned with a recommended list of stocks. She accepted all but one, insisted, "I want to have some fun with the other." (P.S. She has done well with it.)

During the next four years, Miss X received some dividends and put them in the same stocks. She estimates today her holdings total nearly $20,000 at current prices. "I hope to begin taking out about $100 a month in dividends," she said.

This happens to be a success story. In a different market at another time, the ending might have been radically different.

But it illustrates a number of points:

1. Miss X is one of the thousands of new investors in the market. Some analysts estimate more than 5,000 people are coming in every year.

2. They are by no means all "big" investors. Many have annual incomes under $5,000.

3. Miss X had some savings. Americans are putting 20 billion dollars a year into savings today.

4. She has a pension and other sure income. Hence, she could look at the $5,000 as "surplus" money, a sum she could afford to risk.

One big attraction of the stock market today is the booming progress of American business. Corporations showed an estimated total profit of over 17 billion dollars in 1954—double what they earned in 1929.

Nevertheless, at year-end, the stock market was beginning to worry a great many people. Was it too high? Was another wild orgy of speculation gathering momentum, to be followed by a crippling crash as in 1929?

Analysts pointed the sharp contrasts between 1954 and 1929. They said this is primarily an investment market, while 1929's was speculative. Still—

Indicators were approaching the all-time highs, set in 1929. On Sept. 3 of that infamous year, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks hit 157.7. It has never been reached since, but it stood at 156.4 last Jan. 3.

And the Dow-Jones industrial average based on different components did zoom past the 1929 peak of 381.17. It went over 400 for the first time in history.

Suddenly, the Federal Reserve acted. Margin requirements were raised from 50 to 60 per cent. What did that mean? Well, formerly, if you wanted to buy $10 in stocks "on margin," you put up only $5 and borrowed the other $5 from your broker. Now you have to put up $6. The Federal Reserve has sometimes put the rate up to 10 per cent—meaning, you can't borrow at all to buy stocks.

The Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.), new chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, announced the committee would hold an inquiry, probably beginning Feb. 21, to see what's going on in Wall Street.

Soon afterward, the market dropped, but it was still making news, the "biggest bull market in history."

Tomorrow: What is the stock market? Is it predictable?

Leetonia

Peoples Loan Stockholders Hold Meet

LEETONIA — Volume of mortgages has been increased more than $105,000, it was announced at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the People's Federal Savings & Loan Association Wednesday afternoon.

Secretary Mrs. Ruby Burich gave the condition and progress report for 1954. She said a substantial amount had been added to surplus.

D. F. Grappy and Ben Weinberg were elected for a three-year term on Board of Directors which consists of Fred G. Spaholt, president; Weinberg, vice president; Ruby V. Bruck, secretary-treasurer; and D. F. Grappy, E. J. Dean and Carl Wise. Mrs. Thelma Grimes is assistant secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Evelyn Craig is teller.

CLARKE MARSHALL, secretary of the Leetonia—Washingtonville Kiwanis Club, has secured Attorney Jack Cohen of East Palestine as guest speaker for Kiwanis meeting this evening at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Next meeting of the club on Jan. 31 will be held at St. Paul's, but during the month of February the club will meet in Trinity Lutheran Church in Washingtonville.

Ladies Auxiliary of the Knights of Columbus will meet tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. at the K of C hall. Lunch and cards will follow the business meeting.

No action was taken when Village Council discussed parking meters with a meter company representative and a representative from the local Chamber of Commerce Wednesday. A bonding house representative was also present at the meeting.

W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church will be entertained tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Merle Davis, assisted by Mrs. L. E. Fisher and Mrs. Willard Davis.

Mrs. Raymond Baker was hostess to Bridge Club associates Friday afternoon at her home on Lisbon St.

Rev. R. E. Ferguson, pastor of the Methodist Church, is in Lima conducting evangelistic services for two weeks.

Mrs. Charles Morrow left last Thursday for El Toro, Calif., where she will join her husband, Cpl. Morrow, who is stationed there with the U. S. Marines.

As the aftermath of an accident, William A. Rose, 25, of Leetonia was fined $50 and costs for reckless operation. George R. Black of RD, Lisbon was fined $10 for passing without the assured clear distance and Charles R. Amato of Wellsville was fined $5 for speeding.
